

Selichot

סליחות

Saturday, September 9th

7:15pm to 9:15pm

This annual tradition invites us to open ourselves up to the essential work of the High Holy Days: the process of repair and return, of acknowledgement and longing.

Join for an evening of refreshments, prayer, and an introspective and interactive program that emanates from the heart and soul of the season.

Jews worldwide mark the approaching High Holy Days with Kever Avot (graves of the ancestors), annual visits to the graves of departed loved ones. This year we are asking you to bring the following items:

- Warm water
 - A soft, natural bristle brush or microfiber cloth
 - 'Simple Green' all purpose cleaner
- to honour your loved ones.
